Maldives signs the “Samoa Agreement”

01 July 2024

The Maldives has signed the “Partnership Agreement between the European Union (EU) and its Member States, of the one part, and the Members of the Organisation of the African, Caribbean and Pacific States (OACPS), of the other part”, also known as the “Samoa Agreement” at a signing ceremony in the OACPS headquarters in Brussels. The Agreement was signed by Geela Ali, Ambassador of the Republic of Maldives to the Kingdom of Belgium, on behalf of the Maldives. The Maldives also submitted declarations and reservations to specific articles of the Agreement at the time of signature.

The Agreement, which also marks the first partnership agreement between the Maldives and the European Union, will serve as an overarching framework for the relationship between the European Union and OACPS for the next twenty years. It will strengthen the capacity of OACPS member countries to address global challenges and will focus on the priority areas of democracy and human rights, sustainable economic growth and development, climate change, human and social development, peace and security and migration and mobility as key priority areas.
